1	Outstanding large oil painting on canvas "Modern Double Ahren's Engine", Ahren's Mfg. Co., Cincinnati. Incredibly intricate detail, including all the gauges, fittings, tubing, small parts, lanterns, nozzles, etc. Painted by James Fanning and Frank Elder, Cooper Union NYC, 1895. Image size 27x39, in very nice custom frame 33x47. While presently framed flat under plexiglass, it was originally (1895) mounted on a stretcher, as typical for oil paintings. The 1 ¼" gray border that shows in the photo is the original unpainted edge of the canvas, with a row of small nail holes where it was wrapped around the edge of the wood stretcher. A spectacular item in virtually mint condition.	6,250.
2	Wonderful Civil War veteran's trompe l'oeil (deceive the eye) painting circa 1890's, oil on canvas 15x19 on original stretcher in nice custom frame. Scene depicts a wooden wall with nails holding a large percussion revolver, a GAR cap badge and a small broadside announcing a patriotic meeting in Cambridge (Mass) to celebrate the taking of Atlanta. The artist (quite possibly the soldier) decided not to identify himself, but the cardboard tag "nailed" to the wall at left does give his home location as "Chestnut Hill Road, East Hampton, Connecticut". Superb condition, and an unusual subject for a trompe l'oeil, many of which depict currency, letters and photographs.	5,950.
3	Exceptional and previously unrecorded (I think) 1856 Buchanan-Breckinridge jugate broadside. "Democratic National Platform – Constitution and Union, Now and Forever – Wide Enough, Long Enough and Strong Enough for All to Stand Upon". Various Bilblical quotations. Published by Dr. Jacob Horlacher, New Berlin PA. Lightly folded into quarters, probably as issued, overall excellent size 13 ½ x 16 ½. A superb item for the most advanced collection.	9,750.
4	Exceedingly rare large 18 ¾" porcelain platter with rolled corners, made by Haviland from the designs of Theodore Davis. The best documented and most visually stunning of all the dinner services ordered for the White House, this set featured a wide range of birds, fish and animals native to the United States. While I have seen several examples of the similar platter with the wild turkey, I have never seen another mallard. All of Davis' designs are illustrated in the original Haviland catalog, reproduced in its entirety in Official White House China by Margaret Klapthor. This is shown on page 57 of the catalog. Pristine condition (white streaks at right of photo are reflections).	9,500.
5	Exceptional and very early "Daguerreotype Apparatus" broadside of Ari Davis, 11 Cornhill, Boston. Detailed drawings of fuming chamber, camera and developing box, with instructions for use of all three. Davis was at this address in 1840, then in Lowell by April 1841. Size 10x12. Minor folds (it was probably mailed) and minor offset transfer at bottom, basically superb condition.	9,250.
6	Extremely rare 9" English stoneware whiskey flask circa 1830's. Mottled brown and tan glaze. Man sitting on barrel with impressed date "1830". Impressed letters below "J. SMITH – THE MORMON PROPHET". 1830 was the year Smith published The Book of Mormon. This style of flask is quite common, but typically they have no markings. A very few were used to poke fun at well known politicians or royalty. In 30 years of collecting historical ceramics, I have seen only two of the Joseph Smith flasks. Chip at rear of base, otherwise perfect.	2,250.
7	5" creamware tankard circa 1790, two women flank uniformed portrait GW. Poem at top lauds the "Immortal Washington – My Favorite Son – Long Live the President of the United States". The most desirable of all the Washington slogans, the same as on the inaugural buttons. Appearance is pristine. The dealer who sold it to me said it has a restored hairline, but I can't find it. A superb Washington piece.	5,950.
8	One of the best snuffboxes I have owned. 3" molded box of a reddish material that the dealer who sold it to me said is cinnabar, but I think its more likely gutta-percha. Lining is tortoise shell. Exquisitely detailed scene in relief titled (in French) Taking of Yorktown 1781. Dozens of soldiers marching and fighting, ships sit offshore. Detail is so fine that you can see the soldiers hats and muskets, as well as individual boards on the sides of buildings. Excellent condition – a prize for the connoisseur.	6,750.
9	Very rare large 2" solid 14K gold pocket watch, huge engraved monogram JMcA on outer case. Inner cuvette engraved in 12 lines "From the President of the United States to Captain James McAuley of the British Steamship "Commonwealth" in recognition of his humane services in effecting the rescue of the captain and crew of the American schooner "Leading Breeze" October 17 1900". 23 jewel Hampden movement, Dueber case, running condition. A superb rarity in beautiful condition.	7,750.
10	Unique American Federal period silver snuffbox. Entirely hand engraved 2 ½" silver rim with hinged lid mounted on speckled cowrie shell. Eagle with shield on breast grips arrows and olive branches. Stars above, with owners initials DK. Circa 1790, pristine condition.	6,250.
11	Of the dozens of political and historical cigar cases I have sold over the years, this is one of my favorites. 5" solid papier mache (rather than the typically seen flat panels connected with leather). Gold leaf decoration of a kneeling slave in chains with arms raised in supplication. Few minor spots of wear to gilt in unimportant places, excellent.	4,950.
12	One of the neatest medals I have owned. Unique 40 mm (a little bigger than a silver dollar) entirely hand engraved silver medal. Obverse has detailed ocean whaling scene with whale spouting, men with harpoon in small boat at left, ship in background to right. Reverse engraved "Presented to my Faithful Whale Catcher George Mailbot – PT Barnum 1866". Silver header with chain suspension. Choice XF	9,500.
13	Very rare mid 19th century combination weapon – a single shot percussion pistol, knuckles and folding clip point knife. 5 ½ closed, 9" when open. Frame, knuckles, hammer, spacers, screws and blade are steel. Barrel is blued steel, half octagonal, half round, with makers name RILLE engraved on top. Engraving to barrel, spacers and screws. Four part ivory grips. Excellent condition except for minor surface crack at middle of ivory scale on left side. This is a very high quality piece. It's like a cross between a French Apache pistol and a British Unwin & Rogers knife pistol, but better quality than either.	4,250.
14	Rare 16x20 litho "Colored Men – The First Americans Who Planted Our Flag on the Firing Line" by Charles Gustrine, Chicago, 1918. Group of Negro soldiers capturing Germans in close action bayonet charge. Abe Lincoln looks down from sky. Minor bit of foxing, VF-exc. The only other example I've seen in recent years brought $2640 at Swann Galleries African-American sale Feb. 2007.	1,650.
15	Very rare 1810 broadside "Listen Again to the Voice of the Hero of Bennington". President Madison sends congratulatory greetings to General John Stark, praising his patriotism and sense of duty. Stark in turn warns of the dangers facing us from the British, in light of diplomatic threats and insults, and says that while they are dishonorable as enemies, they are more treacherous and dangerous as "friends", and not to be trusted. Published by Albany Corresponding Committee, 10x12 (sight). Light discoloration and water spots, but no damage to the paper, VF. Double matted and custom framed with engraving of Bennington battle, overall size19x25.	2,250.
16	Extremely rare (previously unrecorded) 1920's silk flag 8x12 on original stick. Portrait bearded mountain man "Winchester Rifles, Shotguns and Ammunition – (10 additional lines of text) – Buy All Your Winchester Sporting Goods at Dakins Sporting Goods – Waterville Maine". Advertising flags are much rarer than political flags, though the political ones bring much higher prices. By the time this piece was made, the practice had been outlawed and there are very few promotional flags after the WW I era. Virtually mint.	3,500.
17	The best trap shooting trophy I have seen. Irregular slab of polished redwood 21x27x1". Mounted with silver scene of trapshooting field with 5 men, a tiny (silver) clay pigeon being shattered at left, full size silver Blue Rock at upper left. Silver diecut lettering Ed Garratt Trophy Presented to Golden Gate Gun Club 1925. Small silver plaques at bottom have names of winners 1927-28-32-33. Excellent but for old crack at lower right of redwood, expected tarnish to metal could easily be polished. 4,750.

18 Extremely rare autographed Mathew Brady carte de visite photo of Johnny Clem, the "Drummer Boy of Chickamauga", inscribed by him to famed General Abner Doubleday, who led the I Corps at Gettysburg. "Bvt. Major General Abner Doubleday – Compliments of Jno L Clem". 3,500.

See full page article about this item in the APIC Keynoter Woman Suffrage issue 2008 (copy of article accompanies the pin). 3,250.

24 Rare 1860 Lincoln-Hamlin jugate ferrotype. Superb brilliant, bright condition, would be near mint except the ferro disc has been remounted in a later brass brooch with rope design border. The evenly spaced tiny dots around the edge are where they original mount was crimped. Would be $3500 in original mount. 1,275.

25 Unlisted Grant 21 mm struck in silver "Pres 1869-77....Born Point Pleasant Ohio.....Graduated West Point June 1843". Choice unc. In an 1894 Chapman catalog it was reported that only 10 were struck in silver. 275.

Liverpool, lustreware, Staffordshire, parian, enamels, Paris porcelains, canary, stoneware, sulfides, etc. Anything from the most common to the very rare. John Brown is always of interest. Patti hasn't done much with Ebay the past few months because she has been spending most of her time at our home in Australia (no, I'm not happy about it, but both of her daughters live there). She says she will get back on Ebay soon. You can look at her site using the name "ladystark".

She typically offers a wide range of collectibles & historical material, for the most part moderately priced items in the $25 - $500 range. In addition to the major categories offered in our catalogs (political, photography, military, Old West) she will be concentrating on advertising, breweriana, toys, character collectibles, cowboy heroes, worlds fairs, sports, small English ceramics, textiles, police, fire fighting, autographs, and many other interesting items from the mid 19th to mid 20th centuries.

A Sunshine Boomerang

WHEN a bit of sunshine hits ye,
After passin' of a cloud,
When a fit of laughter gits ye'
An' ye'r spine is feelin' proud,
Don't fergit to up and fling it
At a soul that's feelin' blue,
For the minit that ye sling it
It's a boomerang to you.

EASEL BACK: Cut this off at dotted line below, and paste one end at point on the card marked X. The cut out flowers can thus be stood on mantel or elsewhere in easel form.
Shadow Picture.
With a pair of scissors cut out this head, following the line carefully. By holding the cut out figure between a lamp or gas jet and the wall, a shadow picture of Buffalo Bill will be seen. A little practice will secure good results and a life-like profile. It will also be discovered that the cutting out has not in any way destroyed the flowers on either side, but has preserved them in a unique way, and by use of the easel attachment an attractive result is secured. 20 different shadow pictures in this set.
